To receive direct financial service (s) from the foundation, you only need to prove that you meet the Low-Income Cut-offs (LICO) set by the government by Provincially and Federally, so exceptions can be made depending on extenuating circumstances. This policy is in place to ensure the most vulnerable client (s) needs are met first and foremost.

To be eligible for our scholarship (s) and/or bursary (ies) you must prove financial and/or living independence from your parents and/or family, some exceptions apply. However, individuals do not need to meet the low-income cut-offs participate in any counselling and/or social service (s) and/or social event (s), as all these cost (s) is paid in full by the funds generated by the foundation.
